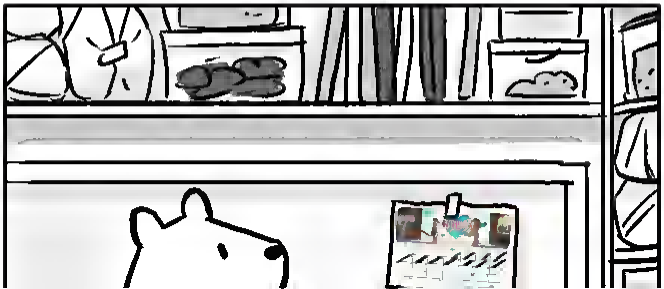
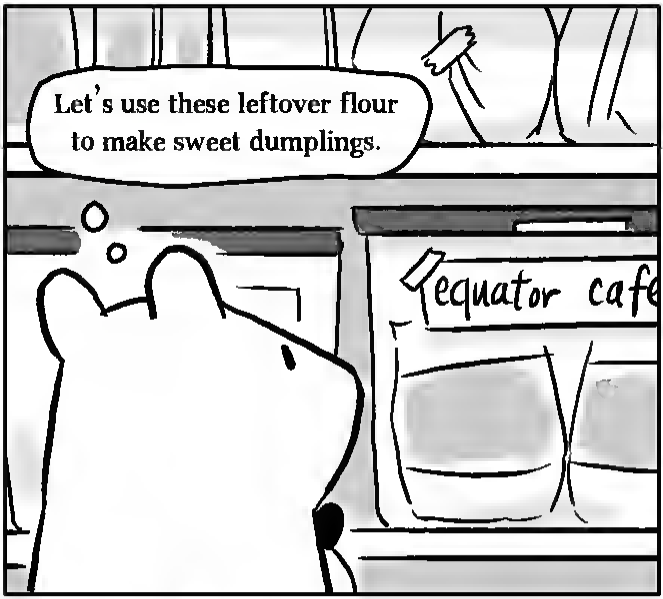
2 weeks past the lunar new year

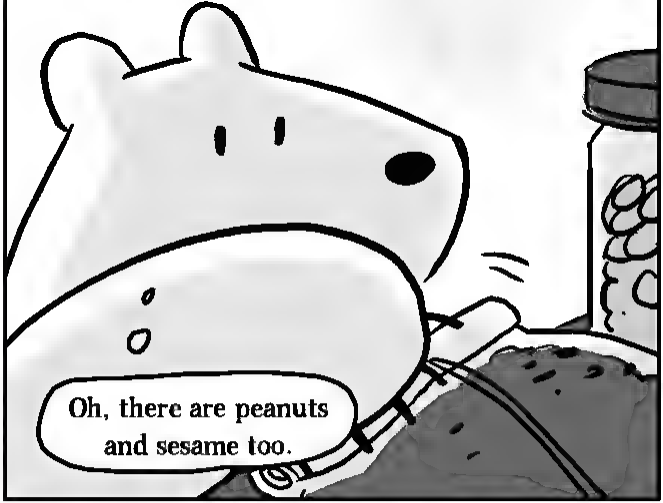
is the lantern festival.



Doglas said some also call it the "Chinese valentine's day".



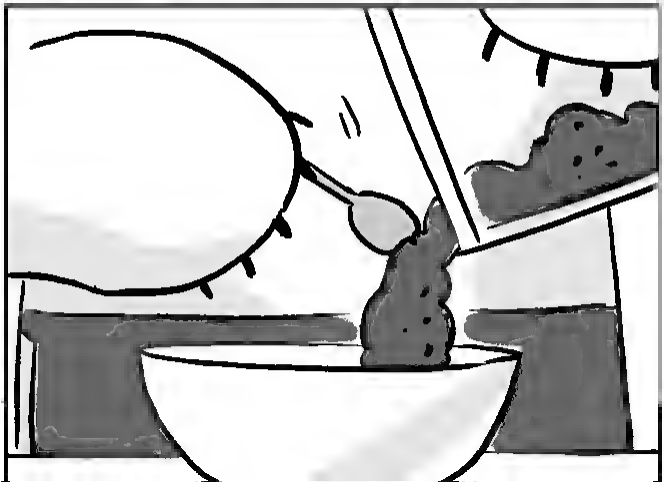
Let's use these leftover flour to make sweet dumplings.
Equator cafe

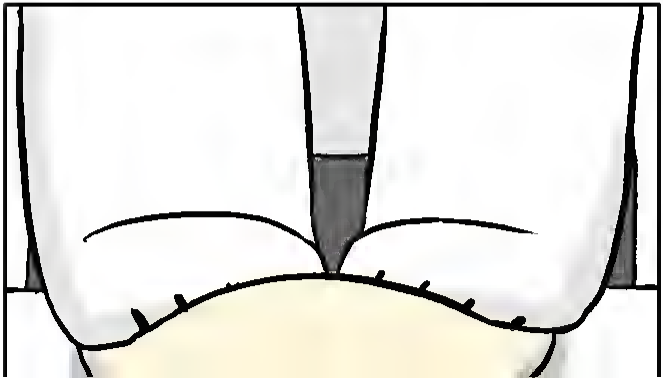


Oh, there are peanuts and sesame too.

The lantern festival symbolizes reunion.

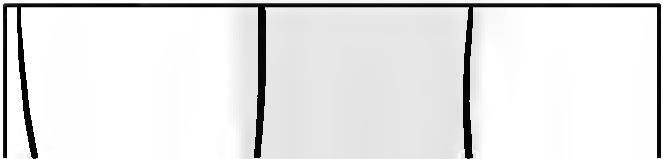
BRRRRRR

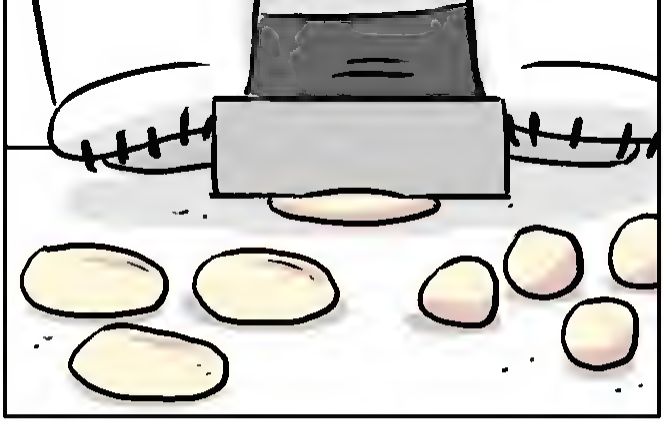


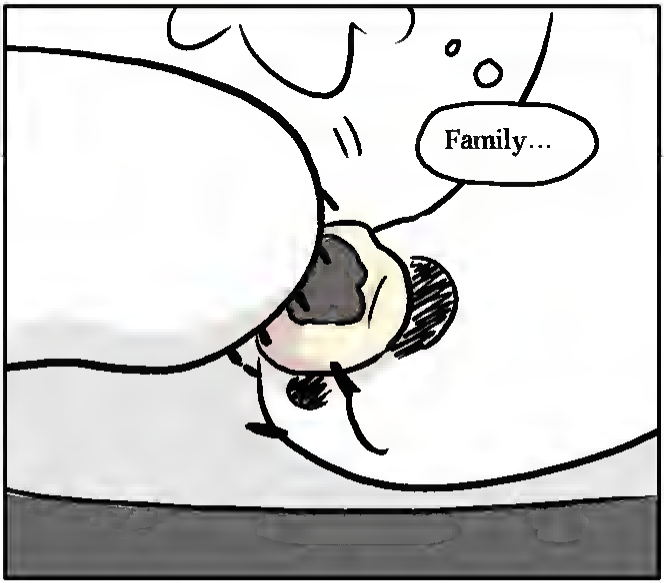


People would make sweet dumplings

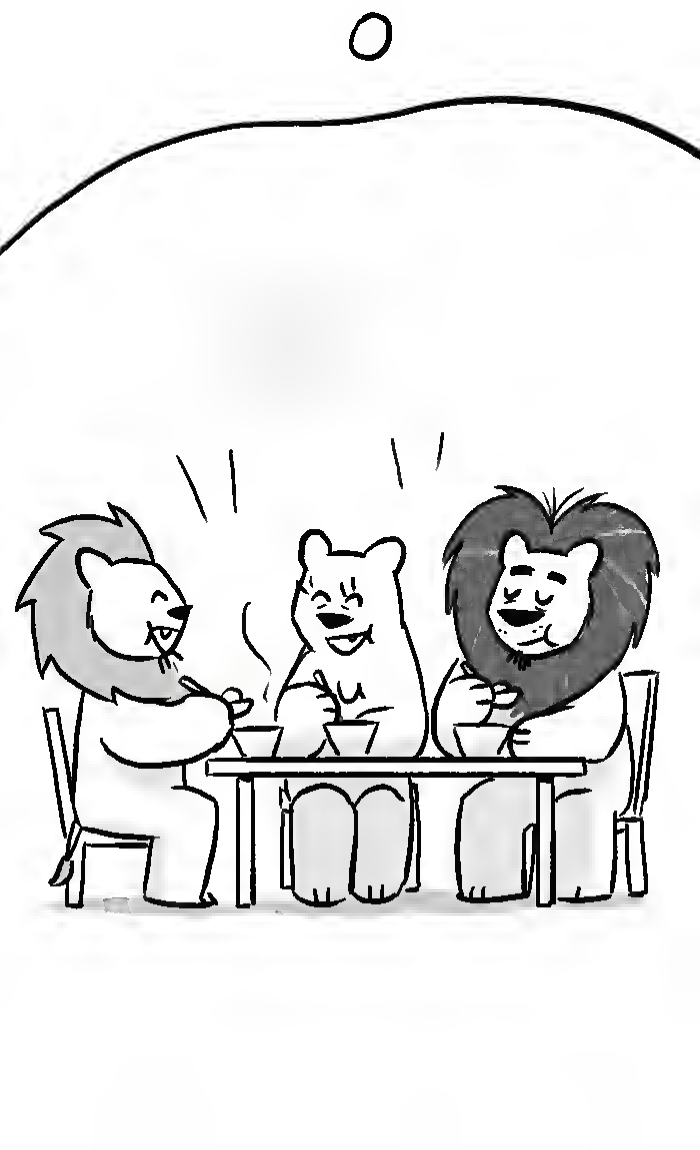
and share it together with their family.

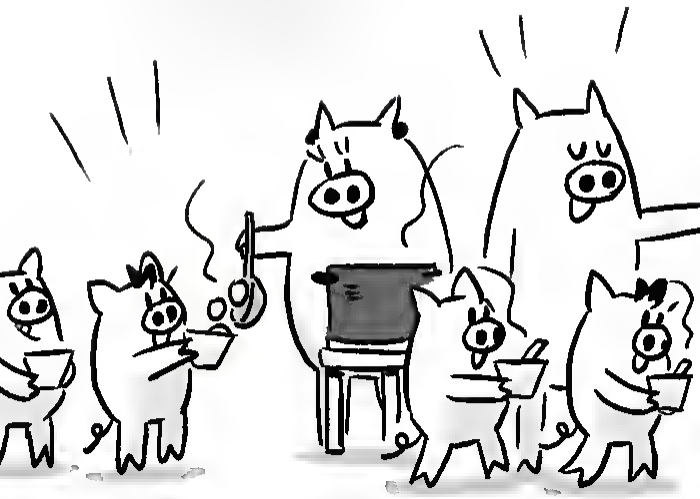




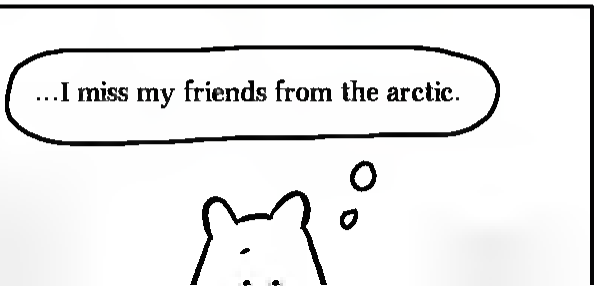


Family...

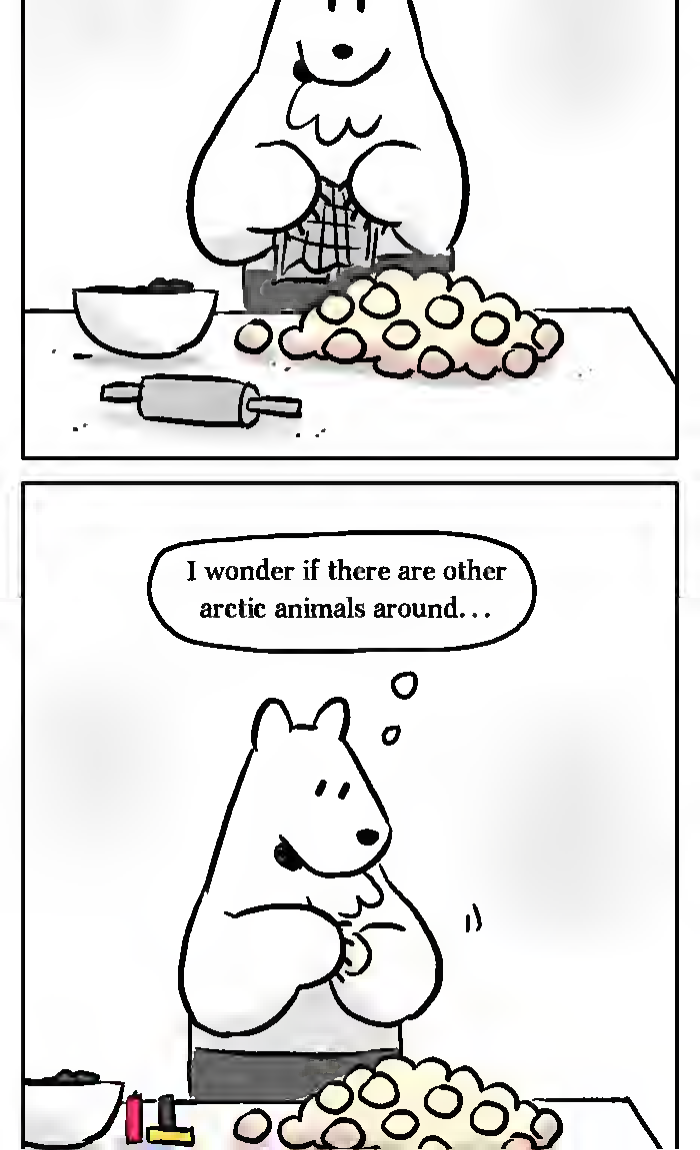




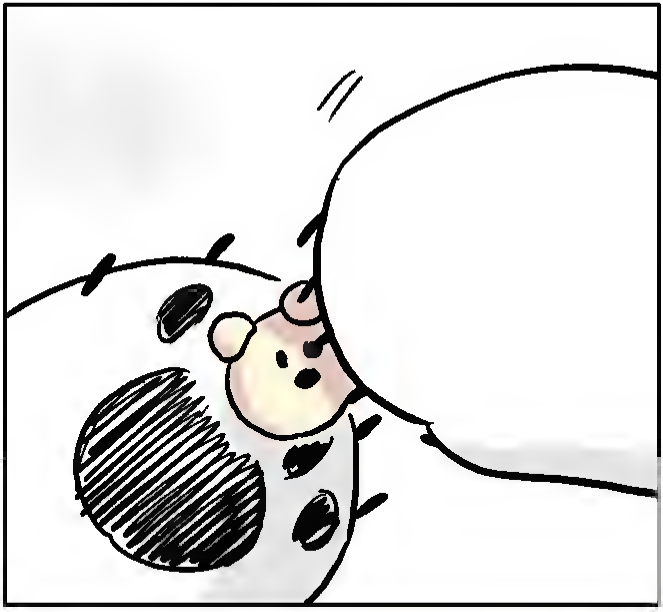
Who am I going to share these with...?

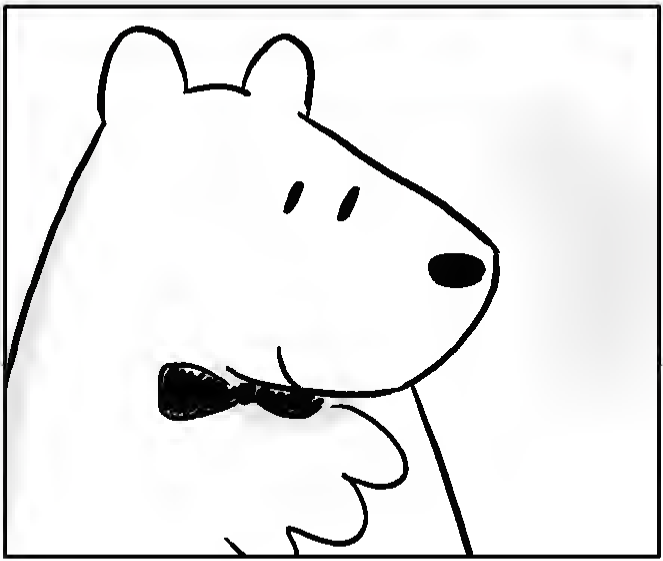


...I miss my friends from the arctic.



I wonder if there are other arctic animals around...



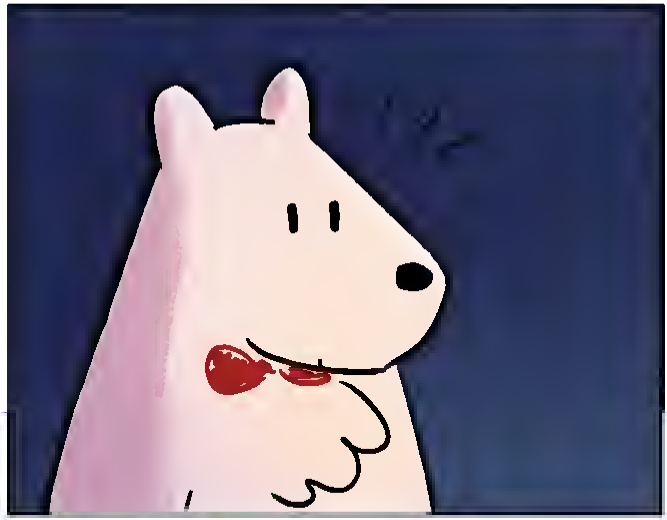


In the lantern festival tradition,

everyone would hang lanterns
attached with a riddle

Those who figured out the riddle would receive a small gift.

Whether it's family, friends or lovers



It's always nice to be together.
